Dual Taxpayers

International Giving Solution

Do you have income in the United Kingdom and United States?

Donating to charity is an act of generosity. However, for donors required to pay taxes in both the United States and the United Kingdom, carefully planned charitable gifts can also present opportunities to increase giving to your favorite charity and lower your taxes.

If you have income in the United States and the United Kingdom and are currently making charitable donations, you may benefit by giving to a dual-tax exempt entity. By giving through our Network Member, International Generosity Foundation (IGF), your donation can receive preferred treatment in the U.S. and the U.K.

How does it work?

The IGF team works with you to receive your charitable contribution and file Gift Aid in the United Kingdom. You'll also be given a charitable contribution receipt for use in the United States. After the contribution is received, you have the flexibility of recommending which charity or donor-advised fund (DAF) will ultimately receive your gift including almost any charity or DAF around the world.

International Generosity Foundation and TrustBridge Global Foundation are working together to offer giving solutions for donors who are required to pay taxes in both the United States and the United Kingdom due to their citizenship or residency status.

Challenges Dual Taxpayers encounter

1 Double Taxation

Dual taxpayers may be subject to double taxation, meaning that they have to pay taxes on the same income to both the U.S. and the U.K. governments.

2 Cross-border Giving

Making tax deductible donations across borders to charities in the U.S. or U.K. may be inefficient, difficult, or impossible.

3 Reporting Requirements

Compliance with reporting requirements in both countries can be time-consuming and require specialized knowledge.

Maximum flexibility on where you give

✓ U.K. or U.S. Charities

After your donation is processed you can easily recommend a grant be made directly to a charity with headquarters in the United Kingdom or United States.

✓ International Charities

Through the TrustBridge Global Network, grants can even be sent to charities around the world. TrustBridge has granted to more than 100 countries.

✓ Fund a Donor-Advised Fund

Your contribution can also be sent to a DAF of your choosing. It can be a Foundation Fund with TrustBridge Global Foundation in Switzerland, or in any of the DAFs of the members of the TrustBridge Global Network.
